HARLEM'S GOOD RACING.

With a fast track, good fields and close finishes there was good sport at Harlem Wednesday afternoon.

The first race was won by the favorite, Rose L. Clawson waited with her until into the stretch and then won easily from the second choice, Guess Me. Mazie V and Guess Me ran head and head around the turn with Abide and the 30 to 1 shot Pat Cleburn, close in their wake. When Rose L took command the others began driving. Abide dropped out, while Guess Me, Mazie V and Pat Cleburn had a stubborn contest.

Inconstancy was a strong favorite in the field of sixteen that faced the gate in the second race. She never had a chance. Getting away in the middle of the bunch the field quickly closed around her and she had no chance at any point. There were only two horses in the actual contest. Miss Casey secured the lead in the first furlong and directly afterward Amy Wade took second position. Miss Casey was two open lengths to the good and Amy Wade was ahead of Fresco and Necedah, running as a pair, when five furlongs had been covered. In the stretch Amy Wade promptly closed with and passed Miss Casey.

The third race gave Spirituelle another chance to show her quality. Hill took her back in the first sixteenth, rated around the turn and ran to the front in the stretch. Boney Boy and Canace made the pace together. Mail Bag moved up on the inside before a furlong had been run, but was shut off by Boney Boy, on the outside, bearing over against Canace. Burns then had to drop Mail Bag back to Spirituelle. The first four were in pairs entering the stretch, with Bill Anthony a length away. Canace weakened half way down, but Mail Bag, Boney Boy and Bill Anthony had a great drive home. Bill Anthony, ridden or whipped from the start, got the place.

There were a lot of good things in the fifth race, an allowance event for 2-year-olds. April's Lady and Sevens were the choices. A tip on Mr. Johnson was keenly noticed and Tom Barrett had a respectable bet on his filly, Josephine B. The winner turned up in Brown & Wimmer's Troubadour—Mona filly, aptly named Monadour, ridden by Martin, wearing Pat Dunne's colors. It was a great race between Monadour, Josephine B., Mr. Johnson and Elsie G.

Goodrich tried to make a runaway race of the eight and a half furlong selling event. He was the post favorite, with a slight preference over Ollie Dixon. After rushing Goodrich out into the lead H. Martin steadied him to the stretch and took a lead of three lengths. Clawson sat still as a mouse on Ollie Dixon until she was straightened out. Then a fierce drive ensued. Martin's whip work was phenomenal but unavailing. In the hardest kind of a drive Clawson landed his mount right on the post.

The Manxman had an easy task in the sixth race. Abuse tried to get away from him but failed, and gave up the struggle before going a half. Thereafter The Manxman was not bothered. Bellicoso was reserved for a stretch run, and easily got the place.

Cherryflame had the speed of the field in the closing race. At the head of the stretch Pearl Walker, Lew Hopper, Lone Princess and Little Singer were in close order, behind Cherryflame. When called on, the latter drew away. Pearl Walker outfinished Lew Hopper. Roger B. ran with the winner to the middle of the upper turn, where he stopped.

Joe Hill will leave Friday night for Latonia, where he will ride Lilian Bell in the Oaks Saturday.

After Cherryflame had been run up, T. M. Berry, under whose colors Cherryflame ran, claimed Pearl Walker for $800 and got her. Berry acted for Horace S. Tomlinson, who, is said to own Cherryflame. Horsemen who discussed the transaction said Gray, who owns Pearl Walker, got decidedly the worst of the deal. Pearl Walker was generally estimated to be worth from $2,000 to $2,500. She is engaged in the Englewood Stakes, one mile, for 3-year-old fillies, at Washington Park. THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

WASHINGTON PARK DOINGS.

There was plenty of work done at Washington Park Wednesday morning, and the track was very fast.

Lieber Karl was sent an easy seven furlongs. He will have his Derby work today. Algol in this stable was sent a fast five furlongs and Charley Christy worked a mile in 1:43.

Tom Ryan had Midian and the four-year-old colt Al working together. "Skeets" Martin was up on the Derby candidate and the pair went a mile and a quarter; time being 52, 1:19, 1:46, 2:14.

William Oliver had Warrenton out and sent him the full Derby distance, Mazie O., the 2-year-old, accompanying him the last three-quarters. He worked well, but pulled up rather tired. The time was :50, 1:18, 1:45, 2:12, 2:38.

Charles Boots worked Borgia alone and he went the mile and a half in comparatively easy fashion. "Skeets" Martin was up. The time was :50, 1:20, 1:46, 2:13, 2:42.

Bannockburn also had his Derby trial. He was accompanied by Benhadad, the first three-quarters of the journey, and by Prince McClurg the last three-quarters. The son of Hayden Edwards, who had been in the dentist hands for an hour previous, stepped off at a lively gait, the time being 24, 51, 1:15, 1:42, 2:11, 2:39. Bannockburn was a very tired horse. He took 44 seconds to run the last three furlongs.

Bromstone only went a mile in 1:44, the fractions being 26, 51 and 1:16.

Mirthful, with Littlefield up, and accompanied by the 2-year-old The Diver, galloped two easy miles. The colt is fit and well and shows no effects of his journey. Littlefield says he never knew him to be better. Littlefield will look after the colt till Derby day, as R. J. Walden, who came with him, has a bad attack of malaria.

The following stables are at the track at present: T. Ryan, W. & C. T. Boots, Havill's, Speirs' and Mason's, Lew Williams, James Arthur, P. Ryan, A. H. & D. H. Morris, Ed Brown, B. J. Johnston, W. E. Applegate, W. B. Sink, Jr., H. Eugene Leigh, E. O. Pepper, J. W. Schorr & Son, F. Gardner, J. A. Gray, John Walsh, Lockhart and Charles Scoggan.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

There is to be a sale of high class yearlings at the Union Stock Yards next Monday and Tuesday nights. The youngsters are the best produced by such high class Kentucky breeders as Colonel W. S. Barnes' Melbourne stud, J. N. Camden, Jr.'s Hartland stud, O. H. Chenault's Spendthrift stud, H. E. Leigh, H. B. Durham, Captain S. S. Brown and others. It is a band of more than ordinary individuals. The youngsters will arrive in Chicago Friday and be on parade in their stalls Saturday and Sunday.

The 123 Rancho del Paso yearlings sold in New York, brought a total of $62,925, an average of $511.72. The sixty-three McGrathiana and Runnymede yearlings sold Monday night brought $35,725, an average of $384.33. The seventeen Hanovers averaged $1,325.

Time, 23, 36, 49, 1:15, 1:22.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Candlemas—Nellie Swift.

Start fair. Won handily. Swiftmas was the best as the racing luck went. He is very good and improving. Hanlon was away flying and ran a good race as far as he went. He quit at the end. Mainstay beat the barrier and stopped in the stretch. He is not of much account. Lambent was off badly and worse ridden. It was a bad looking ride. Auckland, with light weight, will run well among fair ones. Imp had no chance with the ride she got. She was overweighted and eased up at the finish. Blue Devil was probably very short. He was not well handled, and was eased the last quarter. He looks good.

Scratched—Rotterdam, 117; Tobias, 111; Tremargo, 111; Fleeting Gold, 103.

Overweights—Mainstay, 2 pounds; Arbuckle, 3.

6621 SECOND RACE—Futurity Course. (170 feet less than 3-4 mile.) 2-year-olds. Allowances. The Zephyr Stakes. $1,000 Added.

Time, 11, 23, 36, 48, 1:00, 1:11.

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Dixon—Sunglam.

Start good. Won easily. Hubert was favored in every way. He showed stamina and game-ness though and will improve. Kingdon ran a good race, and was full of courage at the end. He is in good form. Muggins ran an improving race, was stopping at end. He has a great turn of speed, but dislikes a route. Satirist ran a good race. Watch him. Marblehead showed sharp speed and was pulled up the last quarter.

Scratched—Autumn, 116; Havelock, 109.

Time, 24, 49, 1:15, 1:42.

Winner—B. c. by Meddler—Suspense.

Start straggling. Won cleverly. Boy Orator was well ridden and lucky. He was probably the best at the weights and will improve. Sanders ran a far better race than his recent ones. He looked like a winner at the eighth pole and finished gamely. Latson had no chance at the start. He was vilely ridden, too, and came like a flash in the last hundred yards. Tab this colt for a route. He can do much better. Sly Fox has been dulled by hard racing. He was pulled up at the end, losing third place. Tabouret is only a sprinter among such horses as these. The Queen was short, but had plenty of speed. Watch her.

Scratched—Sir Gawain, 119.

6623 FOURTH RACE—5-8 Mile. $600 added. 2-year-olds. Maidens. Allowances.

Time, 25, 50, 1:16, 1:42, 1:55.

Winner—Ch. f. by Goldfinch—Explosion.

Start good. Won driving. It was raining and the track was damp. It was a bad race. Gold Mine finished strong and was lucky. Hilee was the best and got a bad ride. Claire closed strong the last quarter. Sigbee was not well handled and did not seem to have speed. Great Neck will favor a route and needs strong handling. Watch him always. The others were pulled up.

Scratched—Handuff, 122; Belle of H., 119; Gaze, 119.

Time, 25, 50, 1:16, 1:42, 1:55.

Winner—Ch. h. 7, by Harry O'Fallon—Lady Royster.

Start good. Won easily. It was a fast race. The track was wet. It was raining hard. Lehman's dicky legs were just suited by the going. He was a good horse and lucky. Bannock liked the going also and finished very strong. He is a surprisingly improved horse. Belmar also ran a good race. He should do about next time. He looks good and was strongly played. Estaca, in going supposed to suit him to perfection, ran under a strong pull for three-quarters of a mile and then quit badly. Watch him and throw out this race.

Scratched—Ben Ronald, 104; Damien, 106; Kinz T, 103.

Start fair. Won easily. Forget was best handled. She set a strong pace and was a winner horse to-day. Sir Vassar was apparently tiptoed from the start. Throw out the race. It was a surprising reversal of form even at the weight. Ben Eder ran a smart race. He is not a good jumper and lost lengths at each hurdle. He should improve greatly.

Fontainebleu has worked five furlongs in 1:02 1/4. He ran green, but finished strong. Leo Planter favors a soft track.

Winner—Ch. f. 3, by Locohatchie—Fredericka.
Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. There was a lot of crowding in the race. Hester, Sir Dick and Valid suffered most. Xalissa always had clear sailing. Nora S ran to her notch, as did Fourth Ward. Shieldbearer had a world of speed.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving to the limit. Parole d'Or was the best. Forbush seemed to hold his field safe at the head of the stretch, but tired badly in the run home. Parole d'Or finished like a lion. Beau Monde was under a choking pull the first part. Was beaten when the real racing began.

Winner—Br. f. by Tremont—Pansy Blossom.
Off at first break to a good start. Won cleverly; second with something left after an early drive. Rosa L. was the best and ran a good race. She is a fair filly and has had bad luck in former races. Guess Me ran her race. Mazie V. showed a sharp turn of speed. Tab Pat Cleburn. He acted a little green and should improve from this race. Abide ran well for half a mile, but tired badly on the end. Mistress Peg ran away a mile and three-quarters going to the post and the field was dispatched without her.
Overweights—Babe Robertson, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. f. 4, by Audrain—The Wraith.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second cleverly. Third, fourth and fifth driving hard. Amy Wade was much the best. She was heavily played. Miss Casey had a lot of speed but was outclassed by Wade. Necedah got away well and ran a fair race. Off in the first division, Jay Bird would have been a keen contender. He was bumped and jostled about a lot and ran a good race. Fresco made a bid on the turn, but tired badly at the end. Inconstancy was all tangled up at the start and Clawson could never get her straightened out. Stars and Stripes and Loyalette both showed speed.
Scratched—Robinson, 107; Brother Fred, 105; F. Garner, 105; Teeta May, 105.
Overweights—Loyalette, 3 pounds; Ed Overlook, 4.

Winner—Ch. f. by Spokane—Narka.
Post minutes. Start good. Won cleverly. There was a hard drive for the place. Spirituelle seems to be a filly of class. In the last sixteenth she galloped over the leaders in front of her and had something left at the end. Bill Anthony is game. He was under the whip the last three furlongs. Mail Bag ran a good race. He was sharply shut off by Canace on the far turn. Burns was compelled to take him back and go around the field. It looked as though Boney Boy would get the place seventy yards out. He tired badly, though, in the closing drive. Canace had a lot of speed and took the short route. Watch her. Boney Boy bore in on Canace on the turn.
Overweights—Nora Lives, 2 pounds.

Winner—Br. f. 3, by Sir Dixon—Ollie Glenn.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a hard drive; the next three were also ridden out. Clawson ran a strong finish on the winner. She is game and stood his sharp call. Goodrich is a coward. Martin rode him well, but he went to pieces when the pinch came. Albertvale hung on gamely through the stretch. He and Kirk had a battle royal for third place. Treachery—heavily played—ran a poor race. Dorothy III. was sharply cut off on the first turn.
Scratched—Mr. Easton, 89.
Overweights—Penso Rose, 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. f. by Troubadour—Mona.
Post 10 minutes. Start fair. The first three were driving hard. It was a pretty finish. All first three horses were nicely ridden. Martin gave Monadour punishment she will long remember. The filly is game and ran from the whip and spur in noble style. Josephine B also did the closing drive truly. She got the place in the last stride. Mr. Johnson has shown great speed in his work, and on the strength of it he was heavily played. He ran a good race. It was a pity to his trial mark. Elsie G had plenty of speed, but hung at the end. April's Lady was lady. She and Seven both ran badly. Miss Marks, off badly, ran only a fair race. Queen Song and Mizoura ran their races.
Scratched—Onomastus, 108.
Overweights—Monadour, 5 pounds; Helen's Pet, 2.

Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Tyrant—Bianca.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly. Third driving. The Manxman is in good form just now. He raced Abuse off his feet in the first three furlongs and after that had an easy time of it. Bellicoso had a lot of speed and ran his race. He is not good enough to beat The Manxman in his present condition. Ella Penzance was lucky to be third. Burns got careless and threw away that position on Tom Collins. Tab Ella Penzance in cheaper company. Tom Collins' forte is mud. Abuse acted badly at the post. He was a trifle overweighted but ran a good race as far as he went. David Tenny was high in flesh and not up to such a race.
Scratched—Lucid, 96; Eugenia Wickes, 102; Second Chance, 104; Paskola, 104; Miss Wise, 91.

Winner—B. f. 4, by Iroquois—Hettie S.
Post 18 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second mildly driven; third and fourth driving. Cherryflame was the best and nicely ridden. She is a fair sort of a filly and is on edge. She was saved a lot during the stay at the post. Pearl Walker had no excuses. She was off well and always had clear sailing. The delay at the post hurt her. Lew Hopper seemed to sulk. Caywood tried to drive him all the way. Lone Princess is in winning form. She ran a clean race. Judge Stouffer ran his race at the post. Millie M was off poorly and had a rough journey. The winner was run up $205 over her entered price and bought in. M. Costello was the bidder for Guy Gray.
Scratched—Tit for Tat, 105; Albert S, 110; Sutton, 108; Molo, 101; Borden, 97; Warren Point, 107; The Tory, 108.
